STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. THOMPSON (for himself and Mr. FRIST):

S. 1931. A bill to provide that the United States Post Office building that is to be located at 9 East Broad Street, Cookeville, Tennessee, shall be known and designated as the "L. Clure Morton Post Office and Courthouse"; to the Committee on Governmental Affairs.

THE L. CLURE MORTON POST OFFICE AND COURTHOUSE DESIGNATION ACT OF 1996

• Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I am pleased to introduce a bill to designate the post office and courthouse in Cookeville, TN, the L. Clure Morton Post Office and Courthouse. I am also pleased that my colleague from Tennessee, Senator BILL FRIST, is joining me as an original cosponsor.

After graduating from the University of Tennessee's School of Law in 1936, L. Clure Morton spent 33 years in private practice and as a special agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In 1970, President Richard Nixon appointed Morton a U.S. district court judge in Nashville, TN. Judge Morton was elevated to chief judge in 1977 and took senior status in 1984. Presently Judge Morton presides in the northeastern division and lives in Cookeville.

Middle Tennessee trial lawyers and judges alike comment on the absolute fairness, intellectual honesty, innovative sentencing, and no-nonsense manner in which Judge Morton conducted his courtroom over the past 26 years. A jurist of great courage, Judge Morton handled many controversial constitutional issues not addressed by his predecessors. He dealt resolutely with the issue of school integration in Nashville and reforms in Tennessee's prison, welfare, and mental health systems.

The city council of Cookeville, TN, recently passed a resolution to recommend this name change of the U.S. post office and courthouse to honor Judge Morton. The resolution reads as follows:

"A resolution to (recommend to the United States Senate) rename the United States Post Office and Courthouse Building, 9 East Broad Street, Cookeville, Tennessee, as the L. Clure Morton Federal Building, to honor Judge L. Clure Morton on the occasion of his retirement.

"Whereas, the Honorable L. Clure Morton has announced his intention to leave active service as a United States judge for the Middle District of Tennessee, and retires to Knoxville; and

"Whereas, Judge Morton was appointed United States District Judge by President Richard Nixon in 1970, and has performed his duties with the utmost dedication and integrity for over 25 years; and

"Whereas, he has handled the entire Northeastern Division docket in Cookeville since 1970, and has presided exclusively in Cookeville, Tennessee since 1984; and

"Whereas, Judge Morton has ruled from the bench without passion or prejudice, seeking only to uphold the Constitution and the laws of the United States; and

"Whereas, Judge Morton is widely respected and admired by his peers and associates in the legal profession and by members of this community; and

"Whereas, this Council desires to recognize the outstanding and lasting contributions made by Judge Morton to the legal profession in middle Tennessee; and

"Whereas, Judge Morton's chambers and courtroom are located in the United States Courthouse and Post Office Building, 9 East Broad Street, Cookeville, Tennessee. Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Cookeville City Council, That we recommend that the U.S. Post Office and Courthouse Building, 9 East Broad Street, Cookeville, Tennessee, which has housed an esteemed member of the judiciary and an outstanding public servant for over a quarter of a century, be renamed the L. Clure Morton Federal Building, in recognition for his significant contributions as a United States District Judge for the Middle District of Tennessee."

Middle Tennessee is a safer, fairer place because Judge Morton served on the bench. This legislation is an appropriate tribute to a man who so positively touched so many middle Tennesseans.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill we introduce today be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:
